3. Report from the Police Department

Chief Ficco reported that with school starting, a number of speeding and related traffic complaints have been received from area bus stops. Lee McGuigan cited this as well as her neighbors concern over Quakers Way becoming a cut-through by drivers when seeking an alternate path when an accident on Route 309 occurs. Chief Ficco also reported that a replacement will need to be interviewed and hired to replace Ryan Naugle. High traffic volume and congestion is anticipated this weekend due to the impact of the Papal visit in Philadelphia.

Officer candidate interviews to be planned for October 10th and 24th.
